SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. In connection with Soviet plans for a Consulate General in Calcutta, Soviet officials have been attempting to purchase a commodious house for the combined consulate and Soviet Trade Agency offices. Advertisements in Calcutta newspapers produced no answers, and the officials are now looking for a mansion somewhere on Theatre Road.
2. The officials have already approached A. P. Stashkevitch to make arrangements with a local Indian firm to refinish the building when it is acquired. Stashkevitch is a Soviet marine engineer and contractor and a Soviet citizen. The officials have specified that no Americans, British or Chinese are to be employed on the refinishing project.
